SAYS U.S. WAY MAKES DEMANDS ON INDIVIDUAL

"Democracy does not evolve of itself, it must be worked for, it must be developed through the efforts of those who believe in it, and Democracy must be based on God if it is to work," the Rev. Wallace E. Fisher, pastor of Christ Lutheran church told the local Rotary club Monday evening at Rotary's regular meeting in the YWCA.

Speaking on "Democracy's Unfinished Business," Rev. Mr. Fisher pointed out that "Half of the world today is militantly organized to make sure democracy does not continue to exist."

"There are those who say that democracy cannot be defeated, that it naturally develops, that time is on its side. But is time on the side of democracy? That is, does it evolve automatically, without effort on the part of those who wish to see democracy grow? Human nature is not constructed that way. Democracy makes demands on the individual, it asks him to be responsible, to work at being a citizen. And as a result it cannot simply automatically develop."

Unfinished Business
"Democracy has its basis in the Judeo-Christian concept of man and nature. It is spiritual before it is material. It demands individuals who have the moral and idealistic capacity to die if need be for their ideals."

"Democracy's unfinished business is a task for men who are intelligently concerned for the development and preservation of democracy. It demands men who are willing to work to remove the opportunity for Communists to sell a bill of goods to people in America, as one example and as one problem."

"We have developed political democracy in this country. In 1789 only a chosen few had the ballot; only a chosen few had true political democracy. Today we have developed, to a large extent, full political democracy. That battle is won, although it may take a full 10 years before it is actually true that all men have political democracy in America. But the thing is that today no one denies that all men should have the right to vote, even though some are prevented from full use of the ballot."

"When men admit that it is wrong to deny the ballot, then it follows that in time all men will have that political democracy."

"In the United States economic and social democracy is still limited. We have not as yet developed full economic and social democracy for all and there is developing, as a reaction, a collectivist idea in America. This is a vital problem, for collectivism can wipe out the political democracy we do have."

"There are those who insist that everything is good in America and I wish that I could join with them. But the status quo boys are dangerous. They would have had a bad time with Jefferson and Paine and the men who started the United States. Those men were really radicals. But do not misunderstand me on this. All change is not progress, and to ask for an honest, intelligent constructive development of our democracy is not to ask that everything be thrown out that we had in the past, that there should be constant upheaval and change."

"But there must be development and there must be change and there must be progress. To stand still is dangerous. It was the believer in the sanctity of the status quo who lost the colonies for England, who caused the horrors of the French revolution, who caused the American civil war and who caused the rise of totalitarianism. We must have a constructive approach by honest, intelligent men if we are to complete democracy's unfinished tasks."

President Mares Sherman presided at the meeting with 56 members present. Vice President William G. Weaver outlined the activities to be conducted during the 86th anniversary program here and also introduced the speaker.

Develop Pigs For More Bacon And Less Lard

Three Adams county farmers will join with 25 others throughout the state in USDA experiments to develop hogs that will give more bacon and less lard.

A. B. C. Williams, York Springs R. D., one of the three farmers, made that announcement Monday evening at a meeting of the Adams County Agricultural Extension Association held at the home of County Agent M. T. Hartman, Gettysburg R. 1.

Edgar Leer, York Springs and Richard Waybright, Gettysburg R. 2, will be the other two farmers cooperating in the experiment. Boars of the Landrace breed, developed at the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Beltsville experimental farms, will be provided to be bred to gilts on the three county farms. The development of the resulting pigs will be compared to similar breedings from the present boars on the farms. Leer and Williams have Berkshire boars and Waybright a Hampshire boar.

Other reports at the meeting included an announcement by Miss Mary Jane Mickey, county home economics extension representative, that there are now 13 home economics clubs in the county with 185 members enrolled.

COOL AIR, WIND BRING RELIEF

Shifting winds brought relief today to sweltering residents of Gettysburg and Adams county. The thermometer dropped from a maximum of 89 degrees Monday afternoon to 72 during the night. The shifting of the wind into the north-east brought cooler breezes and reduced the humidity. Cooler weather was forecast for tonight and tomorrow. At 1:30 o'clock this afternoon the temperature reading was 76 degrees.

(By The Associated Press)
Cool air and rain brought temporary relief to many areas in the nation's hot weather belt today. The dry-stricken northeastern states didn't get much rain to help the wilting crops, but cooling breezes from the Hudson Bay region broke a long hot spell in many sections. Rain over many midwest states also brought temporary relief from the hot humid weather. Heavy falls (Please Turn to Page 2)

U.S. Production Throttled To Slowest Pace In 3 Years

Washington, June 28 (AP)—The nation's production machine has throttled down to its slowest pace in three years and no end to the slowdown has yet been sighted.

The Federal Reserve board reported a 10.8 per cent fall in production from last November's peak to the end of May. The board said another 2 to 3 per cent drop is indicated for June.

Production is coming down with prices, and accompanying factory closings or slowdowns are boosting unemployment in the process.

The Reserve board's report yesterday said output in May remained 74 per cent above the average for pre-war 1935-39. But it was nearly three per cent under April and more than nine per cent below May, 1948.

Meanwhile, there was no agreement over just how serious the nation's economic situation is. Secretary of Commerce Charles Sawyer and a man who once held that cabinet post, Henry Wallace, disputed

AUXILIARY OF HOSPITAL PLAN 2-DAY BENEFIT

The annual hospital auxiliary benefit party may be divided into a two-night affair next year, with dancing scheduled one night and card playing the second evening, hospital auxiliary members said Monday afternoon at the regular meeting of the group at the Warner hospital.

Mrs. Elmer W. Warren, benefit chairman, was among those who made the suggestion, pointing out that by having two parties more people would play cards and more would dance, and the two activities would not interfere with each other. The two events, if it is decided to split the program into two nights, will probably be held in the same week. Tickets could be used either evening. A person wishing to attend both events would have to buy two tickets. The discussion also revealed that the auxiliary favors lowering general admission tickets from $2 to $1, and retain sponsor tickets at $5.

Mrs. Warren reported that more than $1,250 will be realized from the recent benefit. Additional sums from sponsor tickets are still being received.

Purchase New Rug

Mrs. LeRoy H. Winebrenner, chairman of the house committee, reported that a 9x24 foot rug has been purchased for the living room of the nurses home. Purchase of draperies for the home will complete the auxiliary's program for its renovation she said.

The Musselman price is said to be higher than that being paid in some other sections of the country, where nine cents is being mentioned as the price for a pound of number one cherries. Wisconsin is said to be one of the areas where the nine cent price will prevail.

Pennsylvania, the USDA estimates, will have a bumper crop of 7,300 tons of which upwards of 2,200 tons will be grown in Adams county, indicating a crop worth more than $400,000.

He urged those seeking work to register with his office as soon as possible. The main cherry picking force will begin work July 5.

A new booklet, "Lincoln and Gettysburg," the story of Abraham Lincoln's immortal address at Gettysburg, written by Dr. Robert Fortenbaugh, Adeline Sager professor of history at Gettysburg college, has been placed on sale at the Book-mart.

The book has been copyrighted by N. A. Meligakes, proprietor of the Book-mart, and was printed by The Times and News Publishing company.

In a preface, Mr. Meligakes says: "There is . . . need for an accurate, but brief description of the background and events revolving around November 18 and 19, 1863, and readily available at a popular price. The following narrative is offered to fill that need."

Girl's Feet Amputated By A Speedboat

Reno, June 28 (AP)—A hit-run speedboat pilot amputated a 13-year-old girl swimmer's feet yesterday.

Imogene Wittsche and Janet Lutz, each 13 and from Roseville, Calif., were swimming in Lake Tahoe. Then, said Deputy Sheriff F. W. Brenzel:

The speedboat roared close to the beach and shot between the girls. Janet barely got out of the way.

One of Imogene's feet was cut off — presumably by the propeller. The other foot was left dangling by a bit of flesh. It was amputated later at a hospital.

The pilot did not stop. Brenzel said an arrest would be made today.

CLEAR POLLUTION AT NEW OXFORD

The waters of the south branch of the Conewago creek, near New Oxford, were cleared sufficiently today for the borough to resume taking its water from the creek, which had been polluted since June 17 with a discharge traced to the Winebrenner canning company, Hanover. The pollution killed hundreds of fish, and made the water unpalatable to drink, but no illness among residents was reported.

Week-end rains helped to clear up the pollution. During the emergency, a deep well at New Oxford was used to supply part of the water needs of the community, and a tank truck drew thousands of gallons of fresh water from springs at the abandoned Alwine clays.

Representatives of a Philadelphia firm of consulting engineers were in Hanover Friday and Saturday to plan for an expansion of the Hanover sewage treatment plant. At present an estimated 300,000 gallons of partly treated sewage is by-passed from the Hanover plant into Plum creek, which empties into the south branch of the Conewago.

TAFT-HARTLEY ISSUES BEFORE SENATE TODAY

Washington, June 28 (AP)—A closely divided Senate votes today on the Red hot issue of whether to keep Taft-Hartley law injunctions against national emergency strikes.

Both sides put out victory claims in advance of the balloting. But senators in each camp generally expected a nip-and-tuck decision.

Senate leaders said the crucial votes probably would be cast by a few lawmakers who have kept their plans secret.

President Truman's forces have been battling to knock out the labor-labor injunction provision of the present law. They were more optimistic about their chances than at any time since the labor law debate started three weeks ago.

Lucas Is Confident
"I think we have the votes to win," said Senator Lucas (Ill.), the Democratic leader.

Among the pro-injunction senators, on the other hand, there was some real concern for the first time. A few in that group were downright glum.

But not Senator Taft (R-Ohio), quarterbacking the fight to preserve the injunction. He predicted that in the end the court order section would be retained by a margin of seven or eight votes—a bigger edge than most of those working with him claimed.

Today's test votes centered on three amendments, and the Senate arranged to meet an hour earlier than usual (10 a. m., EST) to get in some extra debate.

Three Ballots

The first ballot was slated on an amendment by Senators Holland (D-Fla.), Hoey (D-N. C.), Bricker (R-Ohio) and Schoeppel (R-Kan.). It would keep the Taft-Hartley provision which lets the government get injunctions against strikes which threaten the national welfare.

The next vote was to cover an amendment sponsored by Lucas. It would modify a Taft proposal providing for both injunctions and for government seizure of struck plants for up to 60 days. The Lucas plan would knock out the injunction provision, but keep the seizure section.

The final ballot on the national emergency issue was to come on the Taft amendment, either as modified by the Lucas proposal, if adopted, or in its original injunction-plus-seizure form if the Lucas amendment was defeated.

Mercury Drops 10 Points
New York, sweltering in hot and humid weather and without substantial falls of rain for 32 days, got welcome relief last night as the mercury hit a high of 89.4 during the day and it was 86 at 9 o'clock last night. Then the cool air hit the metropolis and sent the mercury down 10 degrees. The weather bureau at the city's International airport at Idlewild, Queens, reported a 10-degree drop — from 81 to 71 degrees — in three minutes. But the weather bureau said warmer and more humid weather appeared likely tomorrow.

Similar drops were reported in New Jersey where thermometers have hit in the 90's for the last week and where no rain has fallen in 37 days. Some rain appeared in prospect within the next two or three days.

The New England states, rainless and hot most of June, reported temperatures in the 70's, a drop in some areas of from 10 to 20 degrees. Temperatures in upstate New York yesterday generally were in the 80's, but no heavy rain was reported.

GIRL CHARGED WITH MURDER

Lancaster, Pa., June 28 (AP)—A 14-year-old baby sitter was held by Alderman J. Edward Wetzel yesterday for the next term of quarter sessions court in the slaying of four-year-old Ronald Glen Keller.

At the hearing, the youngest's father, Paul Keller of Litzitz, R. 2, said that shortly after the June 13 tragedy Jean Sonen asked him to leave a garden where he was working to accompany him to the cellar of the Keller home.

Keller said that when he discovered his son, the child was still breathing.

"I thought he was dead then," Keller testified. "But then I heard him breathe. I rolled him over so he wouldn't strangle from the blood in his throat."

"All Jean said was 'I did it. I didn't want to do it.'"

Dr. Charles P. Stahr, deputy coroner, testified his examination showed the little boy sustained an extensive skull fracture, as well as multiple fractures of the lower jaw and added that the upper and lower front teeth were knocked out.

Jean has been charged with murder in the child's death.

Interstate League

(By The Associated Press)
The Wilmington Blue Rocks still possess the batting power that has helped them gain and hold the lead in the Interstate league.
For seven innings last night the Lancaster Red Roses treated the Rocks like country cousins, holding them to three scattered bingles and boasting an 8-1 margin.
In the fatal eighth inning, three Lancaster hurlers were blasted from the mound as nine Wilmington runs crossed the plate. The final tally of 10-8 gave the Blue Rocks a two and a half game lead over the second-place Harrisburg Senators, who dropped an exhibition game to the St. Louis Browns, 6-5.

SHARP DECLINE IN ATTENDANCE AT MAJOR GAMES

By JOE REICHLER
(Associated Press Sports Writer)
The majors are headed for an attendance decline from last year's record breaking totals, comparative figures showed today.

With most of the 16 clubs having played nearly half their 77 home games, a check revealed that only six clubs are ahead of last year's figures. Through games of last night, a total of 8,588,438 fans paid to watch the teams in action, as compared to the 8,865,152 who saw the same number of games in 1948. That is a drop of 376,714.

At this rate, the majors are certain to fall approximately a million behind last year's record figure of 20,943,345.

Cleveland Hard Hit
The Cleveland Indians have suffered the biggest drop, having drawn about 145,000 fewer fans than in '48 at a corresponding date. Cincinnati, Detroit, the New York Giants and Philadelphia Phils are others which have fallen 100,000 below last year's figures.

The Pittsburgh Pirates show the biggest gain, 180,000 more than last year. The Chicago White Sox, Washington Senators, Boston Braves, Brooklyn Dodgers and St. Louis Cardinals also are ahead of their '48 figures.

The Cardinals drew a night game crowd of 13,178 in the only regular game played in the majors yesterday, but the fans were doomed to disappointment as the Chicago Cubs beat the Redbirds, 6-4. The defeat prevented the Cards from tying the Dodgers for the league lead. Instead, the Redbirds are now a full game behind the Brooks.

Johnny Schmitz hung the defeat on St. Louis, but needed help from Walt Dubiel in the seventh.

Yanks Beat Giants
The Yankees defeated the Giants in an exhibition game at Yankee stadium 5-3, when Kirby Higbe walked two men with the bases loaded in the eighth to break a 3-3 tie.

Joe DiMaggio, the Yankees' ailing outfielder, playing his first game of the season, went the full nine innings and declared his injured heel gave him no added pain. He failed to get a hit in four official times at bat.
Mickey Owen, reinstated catcher, playing his first game for Brooklyn, singled in the ninth and scored the winning run as the Dodgers defeated the Cleveland Indians, 4-3, in an exhibition game at Ebbets Field.
The Philadelphia Phils routed the Athletics, by a one-sided 19-2 score and Cincinnati defeated Detroit, 10-4, in other exhibition tilts.

That's the way a happy Joe DiMaggio described the first baseball game he's played since April 11, back before the start of the season. The New York Yankees' $90,000-a-year berth warmer took over his old centerfield spot and went the full nine innings in an exhibition game against the Giants last night at Yankee stadium.
He didn't help much in the Yanks' 5-3 victory. He popped up weakly in four times at bat, walked once and made two easy putouts afield.
But he was so encouraged that he is counting heavily on getting back into regular competition in the three-game series with the Red Sox, opening tonight in Boston.

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, June 28 (AP)—An aftermath of the recent pro tennis championship is that Forest Hills is soured on the pros and vice versa. . . The customers stayed away in droves from the Bobby Riggs-Don Budge final and neither players, who split $680 in the final, nor the West Side tennis club, which absorbs the losses, are happy about it. . . The pros feel that a change of scenery (maybe) and a wholesale influx of new talent (certainly) would improve the situation. . . But judging by results from Wimbledon there's not much good new talent in sight. . . Come to think of it, tennis is in about the same situation as other professional sports, except football, when it comes to producing new stars. . . Somehow the Major league football clubs manage to turn up about 200 rookies each fall and most of them are good.

WHAT'S THE SCORE?
From headquarters of the Pioneer baseball league comes a report of a delayed action, reverse English sacrifice, if you can figure that one out. . . Seems Henry Sich of the Pocatello, Idaho, Cardinals was on first base in a game against Twin Falls. . . Catcher Dick Morgan laid down a perfect sacrifice bunt and was tossed out at first. . . As Morgan walked slowly toward the Pocatello dugout back of third, Sich nonchalantly strolled back to first and never got any farther. . . It wasn't until the next day that the explanation came out. Sich thought the bunt had rolled four and that Morgan was returning to the plate. Nobody else noticed what was going on. . . And the Pioneer bills itself as "the best Class C league in America."

CLEANING THE CUFF
The Western Open Golf championship, which will be played at St. Paul next month, ranks up with the masters on the Ryder Cup point list. . . Artie Dorrell, reformed boxer and equally reformed publisher of a Los Angeles boxing magazine, is moving to Brownsville, Texas, where he hopes to build up an ambitious amateur boxing program. . . "I know I can teach kids the good points of boxing and defense," explains Artie.
More than 500 "Dan Patch Trophy Races" will be run during the Harne racing season, to honor the famous horse of the early 1900's. The Brooklyn Dodgers have finished in the National League cellar only once in 1905.

Softball League To Dedicate Lights July 6; Several Teams Allowed To Strengthen Squads

Plans for the dedication of the new lighting system for softball on the recreation field Wednesday evening, July 6, were outlined at a meeting of the Community Softball league Monday evening at the Moose home.

Details of the program will be announced later but it was revealed an impressive but brief ceremony will take place.

One of the most important items of business transacted was the action to pave the way for the strengthening of several teams in order that better played and tighter games may result.

The Stanton Legion was permitted to add Clarence Dorm, a pitcher, to its roster. Oyler Motors was given permission to secure five new players while Robert Saylor, formerly of the Texas Lunch, was secured by the Moose with the luncheon permitted to secure a replacement for Saylor.

It was decided to add burnt sand mixed with dirt to the base paths similar to that used on the college field.

Will Oil Roadway
President Johnny Knox, who presided, announced that large quantities of used oil have been donated by a number of garages and service stations and will be used to oil the roadway thereby eliminating dust which has been a discomforting factor for the last several weeks.

All team managers were urged to collect the $1 contributions from players as soon as possible and it was reported the sale of $1 honorary memberships was progressing satisfactorily.

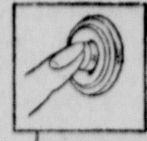

A corps of volunteer workers has erected additional protective wiring as wings on the backdrop and this will be extended further along the

JOE DI MAGGIO BACK IN GAME

New York, June 28 (AP)—"It felt good—I mean playing out there felt good."
That's the way a happy Joe DiMaggio described the first baseball game he's played since April 11, back before the start of the season. The New York Yankees' $90,000-a-year berth warmer took over his old centerfield spot and went the full nine innings in an exhibition game against the Giants last night at Yankee stadium.

He didn't help much in the Yanks' 5-3 victory. He popped up weakly in four times at bat, walked once and made two easy putouts afield.
But he was so encouraged that he is counting heavily on getting back into regular competition in the three-game series with the Red Sox, opening tonight in Boston.

TRAP SHOOTERS FORM LEAGUE

An Adams County Trap Shooters League was formed Monday evening by representatives from four county sportsmen's associations who met at the home of the York Springs Sportsmen's organization near York Springs.

Chauncey Smith, McSherrystown, was named president; Bernard U. Miller, Gettysburg, vice president; Jack Starry, York Springs, secretary, and Carl Bankert, Littlestown, treasurer.

A meeting of the officers will be held July 11 at Gettysburg to arrange a schedule for the fall shoots which will begin October 8, it was announced.

To Award Trophy
Each of the four organizations in the league, the McSherrystown Rod and Gun club, Littlestown Fish and Game association, Gettysburg Sportsmen's club and the York Springs group has its own trap shooting facilities.

The league schedule will include two shoots on each of the club's home grounds, with the sites to be rotated.

In order to provide as wide a participation as possible, each club will take with it as many members as possible to each shoot. The top five scores made by the members of each club will be counted as the team score.

At the end of the season a championship trophy will be given to the club with the highest total score in the eight competitions.

Eastern League

(By The Associated Press)
Skinny Sal Madrid, a 230 hitter, slugged a two-run homer in the ninth inning last night to give the Elmira Pioneers one of their now rare Eastern league victories.

The 6-5 win over Hartford enabled the cellar-dwelling Pioneers to whittle Hartford's seventh place margin to three games. The Elmira, who shared first place with Albany in May, are now six and one-half games behind first division.

Albany widened its lead to eight games again, trimming Williamsport, 4-3, while runnerup Wilkes-Barre lost to Utica, 10-8. The win hoisted Utica back into fourth place and dropped the Binghamton Triplets into fifth. The Trips were pounded into 10-4 submission at Scranton.

Games today:
Hartford at Elmira 7 p. m.
Albany at Williamsport 7 p. m.
Binghamton at Scranton 7 p. m.
Utica at Wilkes-Barre 7 p. m.

Allentown, Pa., June 28 (AP)—Two-year-old Gene Shupp was injured critically last night when run over by an automobile under which he had crawled to take a nap, police reported. The boy was taken to Allentown hospital where doctors said his lungs were deflated by the weight of the car passing over his body.

Eddie Robinson Leads In Voting

Chicago, June 28 (AP)—Eddie Robinson, 29-year-old Washington Senators first baseman, appears a cinch to be in the American league starting lineup for the 16th annual all star baseball game in Brooklyn, July 12.

Robinson, who played with Cleveland last year and led the league in fielding with a .994 average, holds an advantage of 338,426 votes over his nearest rival, the Tribe's Mickey Vernon. Vernon went to Cleveland from the Senators in the swap that included Robinson.

Robinson, who hails from Paris, Tex., has been named on 774,624 ballots in the nation-wide poll which started June 10 and ends tomorrow at midnight. Final returns will be announced Saturday.

Olympic Star To Defend His Crown

Tulare, Calif., June 28 (AP)—Youthful Bob Mathias puts his Olympic games prestige and his National A.A.U.M. Decathlon crown on the block tonight and a score or more rivals begin attempts to wrest it from him before the King's home town admirers.

Mathias, at 17 years of age the youngest athlete ever to capture the Olympic title, scoring 7,139 points in the games at London last year, is the hero of a two-day celebration here as he goes against the nation's best in the 10-event competition.

The former Tulare high school star, now a student at Kiski prep school in Pennsylvania, may be hard pressed to retain his laurels when the 1949 nationals get under way tonight.

On tonight's schedule are the 100-meter dash, the broad jump, shot-put, high jump and 400-meter run. Tomorrow night the 110-meter high hurdles, discus throw, pole vault, javelin toss and 1,500-meter run round out the exacting Decathlon program.

Today's Talk

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS
OUR FRIEND, THE COW

I love to view a field of cows at pasture. They are gentle animals and they make up a wonderful picture in a landscape. I have a friend whose home is filled with only paintings of cows. Cow paintings are his favorites. I can understand why. I like them too.

Just think of the great service cows render to mankind—just mentioning one service that they render—the giving of their milk to millions upon millions. Keeping babies alive, and furnishing their milk, that is the most perfect food in all this world. Imagine for a moment what a tragic happening if all cows should be suddenly banished from the earth! How difficult it would be to find a substitute.

Hardly a meal is served without some product from the gift of these fine animals — milk, butter, and cheese. How little we think of the blessings that are afforded us from this rich earth, and its inhabitants outside that of man. Instead of bronze statues of military heroes, scattered all over the land, what an inspiration a few erected to the glory of the cow! Many a boy and girl would do a deal of thinking when viewing one thus placed in a prominent location.

What a picture of peace and contentment is that of a herd of cows in a pasture, idly chewing their cud! I have stopped my car by the roadside many a time just to take note of such a scene. And what memories are aroused by the tinkling sound of a cowbell in the fertile valley or range.

Then there is that early visit of the milkman, who often awakens us to an early start for the day. But his service is not to be forgotten, for without him that milk, which we so much prize, would amount to a major tragedy and loss of much health. Babies, especially, would miss his call, not realizing the meaning, but suffering the loss.

As a farm boy I milked many cows and can testify to their gentleness and seeming willingness to unconsciously give of their substance, though they have no idea of their usefulness. All glory to them! They are mankind's great friends.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "What Is Success, Anyway?"

LETTER XXIV

Beloved, here's our day again! The best of all for me.

The little house on Commonwealth again I seem to see;

The daisies you had gathered, and the smilax from the wood,

And that borrowed little altar where the smiling rector stood;

The fire at the piano and the wedding march she played,

And that silver, velvet cushion which we knelt on as we prayed.

Beloved, I remember the old coachman on the hack,

Who drove us to the steamer at a pace that wasn't slack,

And the friends who followed after just to shower us with rice,

And the tricks they played upon us and you didn't think them nice,

The days of honeymooning! Can so many years have flown

Since we first crossed the threshold of a dwelling all our own?

Oh, so often on this morning with a smile you used to say:

"Do you happen to remember it's once more our wedding day?"

Can it be that you've forgotten?"

That I had, I knew you thought,

Then I'd suddenly surprise you with some little gift I'd bought.

Well, I'm writing you this letter for this morning just to say

That I never have, and never will forget our wedding day.

BIG INCREASE IN OVERWEIGHT ARRESTS SHOWN

Harrisburg, June 28 (P)—More truck drivers were arrested for overweight violations in the first four months of this year than for the entire 12 months of 1947.

The Pennsylvania state police, now in the midst of carrying out Gov. James H. Duff's directions to halt overloading violations, reported today 5,504 were nabbed up to May 1 this year against 4,815 arrested in 1947.

The arrests this year so far also were double those for the comparative period of 1948. There were 2,777 arrests for overweight in the first four months of last year and 9,593 for the entire year.

The state police also reported that of the 5,504 trucks found overloaded up to May 1, 1,954 of the vehicles were from outside the state. A year ago the proportion was 789 out of 2,777.

Better Enforcement

A state police spokesman attributed the sharp boost in arrests both to an increase in violations and greater enforcement endeavors by the state police.

There are now 15 weight details working throughout the state with the hours and times they are active left to the discretion of local state police commanders.

Governor Duff told newsmen yesterday, however, that the state police will be augmented with temporary personnel if necessary in the drive against truck overloading and speeding.

"I have no feud with the trucker who is obeying the law in Pennsylvania," Duff added.

Weather, Accidents Damage Power Lines

Street lights were out for half an hour Saturday night while repairs were made to a pole on York street damaged in an automobile accident, and Biglerville, Arendtsville and Heidlersburg were without power for three-quarters of an hour when an automobile hit a pole three miles south of Biglerville.

Repairs to the Biglerville road line were not completed until Sunday morning but a temporary line was cut in. Thunderstorms interrupted service Saturday and Sunday in various parts of Adams and York counties, the Metropolitan Edison company said.

The ground has been so dry that it would not carry off the electricity generated in thunderstorms, and in several cases transformers were put out of order or fuses blown.

Knifing Victim Wed In Hospital

Ashland, Pa., June 28 (P)—A 25-year-old Girardville, Pa., man was married Sunday as he lay on the operating table at Ashland State hospital.

That was the day originally set for Arthur Engle's wedding and he insisted on going through with it despite serious knife wounds in his chest, leg and arms.

The bride was Mary Harkaway, 23, of Mahanoy Plane, Pa.

Police said Engle was wounded Saturday in a fight with a friend.

Hospital officials turned over the operating room for the wedding "because it's the quietest place in the building."

CANADA KEEPS LIBERAL PARTY BY WIDE MARGIN

Toronto, June 28 (P)—The Liberal Party of Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent has won a smashing political victory reminiscent of the 1936 landslide of the Roosevelt new deal.

Returns today from the national election showed the Liberals—Canada's nearest equivalent to the Democrats—had won 193 of the 262 seats in the new House of Commons. They led in all provinces but Alberta. It was the greatest party triumph in Canadian history.

The Progressive Conservatives, the main opposition party, took 42 seats. The other commons members will come from minor parties.

The Canadian party dominating the House of Commons names the government. The Liberals now have a mandate until 1954. That will run their incumbency to 19 years—they took over from the Conservatives in 1935.

Personal Triumph

It was a personal triumph for St. Laurent, who has been in politics only eight years. The soft-spoken French-Canadian, 67 years old, assumed the prime ministry last November when W. L. Mackenzie-King bowed out because of ill health. King personally selected St. Laurent to lead the Liberals to victory—and the staunchest Conservative could admit today that King was smart.

St. Laurent, in a broadcast to the people, promised to work for peace and security—and Liberal party aims. One of these is to extend social security measures to include a system of contributory health insurance. Canada's present social security system encompasses several measures similar to those enacted in the United States—and also a "baby bonus" that pays all parents about $5 a month toward each child's support.

George Drew (former premier of Ontario, spearheaded the losing Conservative drive. He conducted a vigorous campaign but Canadians apparently looked at their relative prosperity—and then looked the other way.

Youth Killed By Block And Tackle

Lansdale, Pa., June 28 (P)—A hay-riding accident yesterday cost the life of 18-year-old Robert H. Ruth, recent graduate of Lansdale high school.

Coroner J. Winslow Rushong of Montgomery county said the youth was helping to take in hay on the farm of Howard Detweiler near Chalfont, Bucks county, when a block and tackle fell from a barn loft and hit young Ruth on the head. He collapsed later and was taken to Elm Terrace hospital, Lansdale where he died.

MANY PLANTS LEAVE STATE; URGES PROBE

Harrisburg, June 28 (AP)—Sen. John H. Dent, senate Democratic leader, today urged "an immediate investigation by the general assembly's joint government commission into what he termed 'the flight of industry' from Pennsylvania."

Dent made public a letter to Rep. Baker Royer (R-Lancaster), chairman of the legislature's research agency, asserting "no matter what the reasons are we ought to try to stop this mass migration from our state."

The senator's letter referred specifically to news stories about the proposed closing of the tube plant of the Sylvania Electric company at Altoona and a proposal to remove another plant from Emporium.

Dangerous Situation
"In Jeannette, the rumors have the tin and tube plant of Pennsylvania rubber on its way to Ohio and other points," Dent added.

"If true, these and other facts and rumors add up to a dangerous situation in Pennsylvania," he stated.

"I believe the people ought to know whether this flight from Pennsylvania is caused by Pennsylvania spending, by exorbitant local or state taxes, or other causes," Dent continued.

"If we can save these communities, it is worth every effort we can put forth. If state taxes are chasing industry, the fact we are building a surplus won't help the people who lose their jobs."

Score Of Studies
Meanwhile, Royer said the research agency's staff will be retained without change following a meeting here yesterday to continue plans for more than a score of legislative studies authorized by the 1949 general assembly.

"I made it one of the conditions of taking the chairmanship that the staff would remain," he said.

The staff includes Lloyd D. Stambaugh, resident secretary; Guy W. Davis, counsel, and Dr. Paul Wueler, research director.

Urges Curb On U.S. Aid To Schools

Washington, June 28 (AP)—Former President Hoover estimates that $150,000,000—half the amount voted by the Senate for annual Federal aid to schools—can be saved by helping only the "real backward states."

He suggested:

(1) Don't help states that don't need it; (2) Watch out for government "dictatorship" over education; (3) Be wary of the "grave dangers" in Federal "grants-in-aid" which cover projects like hospitals, roads and social security.

He gave his views in a letter made public by Rep. McConnell (R-Pa.) Senior Republican on the House Education and Labor committee.

Duff Declares War On Truck Violators

Harrisburg, June 28 (AP)—Gov. James H. Duff called today for an intensive enforcement campaign against overloaded and speeding trucks on Pennsylvania highways.

"I intend to take whatever measures may be necessary to protect the traveling public against wilful violations of the motor code," Duff told reporters.

"I'm hitting at the group who are determined to defy the law and make the public like it."

Duff added that if Pennsylvania is to have a highway system "we can't permit any small group continuously to damage the highways by heavy overloading and we are not going to."

Hull Rites Held

Pleasant, Hanover, R. 1, Saturday at 3:50 a. m., following a short illness. Services were held at the J. W. Little and son funeral home, Littlestown, in charge of the Rev. S. A. Jacobs, Hanover. Interment was in the Resthaven cemetery, Hanover.

Serving at pallbearers were Levi Kindig, Roy Sterner, Herbert Dull, Edgar Berwager, Frank Leese and Eugene Hilker.

EX-PREMIER OF SPAIN EXPIRES

Madrid, Spain, June 28 (AP)—Alejandro Lerroux, 85, five times premier of Republican Spain, died Monday.

The family announced that Lerroux, who had proclaimed his agnosticism throughout his life, returned to the Catholic church and received the sacrament on his deathbed. He will be buried in Madrid's Catholic cemetery.

Lerroux was reported ill in Lisbon, Portugal, in 1945. He had been in exile there since the Civil war. In 1947 Generalissimo Franco gave him permission to return to Spain.

A life-long Republican he had been exiled several times by King Alfonso XIII. Each time he returned, his power as chief of the radical Republican party grew greater.

Lerroux was as strongly opposed to Socialism and Communism as he was to the Monarchy, and for this reason left-wing groups prevented his election as president of the Republic after the throne was overturned in 1931.

Five times, however, he was named premier to try to run Spain on a middle-of-the-road basis.

Lerroux started life as a newspaperman, switched to a business career, became wealthy in shipping and allied fields, and finally turned to law. He was admitted to the bar at the age of 50.

Women Hitchhikers Sought In Shooting

Frackville, Pa., June 28 (AP)—Police Monday sought two women hitchhikers they said shot and slugged a 22-year-old ex-GI.

The veteran, Charles Klevis of Frackville, is in critical condition at Locust Mountain hospital. He underwent an emergency operation for removal of a bullet from his stomach.

Lewis D. Buono, chief of Schuylkill county detectives, said Klevis picked up the two women early Sunday in Pottsville. They said they wanted to go to Frackville.

When they reached the town, Buono said Klevis told him, one girl took out a gun and demanded money. Klevis tossed his wallet into the bushes.

The woman shot Klevis, then both hitchhikers struck him about the head and face.

The word "Almanac" is derived from the ancient Arabian words which meant "the weather" or "climate."

SUNOCO DYNAFUEL IS 4 TO 1 CHOICE OF AUTO ENGINEERS

Proved by this Detroit Gasoline Survey*

*513 FOREMOST AUTOMOTIVE ENGINEERS in the Detroit area were asked what brand of gasoline they used in their own cars . . . and more said Sunoco Dynafuel than all other gasolines combined! To find out why Dynafuel is the 4 to 1 choice of men who know motors best . . . try just one tankful in your own car. Then judge for yourself.

55% Prefer Sunoco Dynafuel!

*SURVEY WAS CONDUCTED by a nationally known, independent research company.

Names of 709 Engineers in Detroit area were obtained from roster of a leading automotive engineering society. Personal conversation interviews were completed with 513 engineers. The others were persons who had moved, did not own a car, or were otherwise unavailable for interviewing.

The question—"What brand of gasoline do you ordinarily use in your car?"—gave them freedom to name any gasoline.

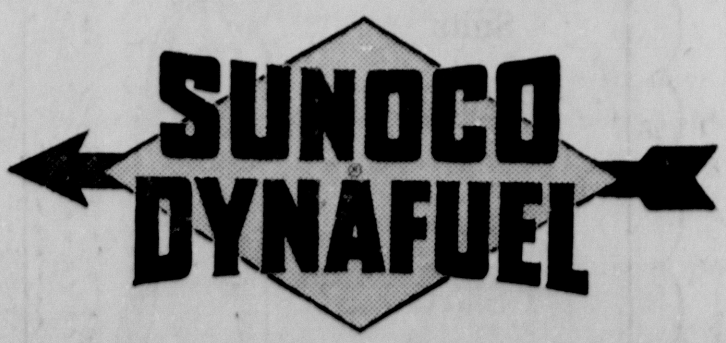

Of the 513 engineers interviewed, 282 or 55% said they used Sunoco Dynafuel... 4 to 1 over the next nearest gasoline.

FOR BEST RESULTS FROM YOUR CAR, don't dilute Sunoco Dynafuel with other gasolines. Wait until your tank is nearly empty and then fill up with Dynafuel... the gasoline that more auto engineers use in their own cars than all other gasolines combined. You'll get high-test performance . . . without paying premium price!

Save up to 2¢ a gallon over other high-test gasolines

RESCUERS SEEK TRAPPED MAN

Frackville, Pa., June 28 (AP)—A rescue crew today continued the tedious task of attempting to reach an elderly coal miner trapped 60 feet below the surface.

Late last night, the rescue workers recovered the body of a second miner trapped after a sudden fall of rock in an independent mine.

The body of Joseph Romanoski, 63, Frackville, was found covered with rock and dirt after nine hours of digging by a crew led by Stanley Dixon of Maizeville and Stanley Blum of Gilberton.

The rescue crew estimated it would probably be late tonight before they reached the second man, Joseph Vinski, 68, who is trapped 40 feet further down than the 20 foot level at which Romanoski was discovered.

Fear Man Is Dead
Little if any hope is held that Vinski is alive.

Joseph Vinski, 65, cousin of the trapped man by the same name, escaped from the shaft. He told rescuers that the trapped Vinski went down 60 feet to dig coal after firing a shot of dynamite. Suddenly the rock crashed in on him.

Romanoski tried to aid the trapped Vinski and was entombed himself.

The miners are not members of the United Mine Workers, now on their annual 10 day vacation.

MARKETS

GRAIN: Wheat $1.85; Corn $1.45; Oats $1.45; Barley $1.45; Rye $1.25.

Baltimore Fruit-Poultry: Apples—Market weaker, Md. and Virginia, bushel has, Transperts, 2-in. up, $3.35-3.25, very few $3.50; fair quality, $1.25-2.50.

LIVE POULTRY—Market slightly stronger fryers. Receipts light. Trading very light. Wholesale selling prices per pound in Baltimore: Fryers—3 1/2-3 3/4 pounds, 22 1/2-26c, best 24-26c.

Baltimore Livestock: CATTLE—Fresh receipts estimated at 1,250 head formed the smallest Monday movement locally in six weeks. Run was 46 per cent smaller than the count of a week ago and measured a decrease of 14 per cent from the corresponding day a year ago. Total salable supply was somewhat larger than a year ago, but the bulk was on offer that was held from last week.

A rather sizeable carryover was on sale a week ago today also however so that in comparison the local run was still relatively light. The opposite of this picture was true at the twelve principal midwestern terminal markets where an estimated 2,700 cattle were on offer today, compared to an actual total of 51,382 last Monday, and 50,208 the same day last year. This heavy run through the Midwest had a bearing influence on the local trade and cooled with a continuing dull dressed-meat trade resulted in a slow trade on live cattle.

The salable supply included the equivalent of 25 loads of slaughter steers, 1 1/2 loads heifers and sixteen loads stock cattle. Balance of the receipts consisted mainly of cows with about a normal percentage of bulls on hand.

Grain-fed slaughter steers met a fairly active trade and moved seaward at generally steady prices, compared with last Thursday, but grass-fat offerings cleared slowly and in some instances displayed declines of as much as 50 cents. A load of average to good choice grade 1 steers, topped the day's trade, $27.50; bulk of the high-grade and choice $27.1-382 pounds, $26.75-40; average medium and good, including graded on grass steers, $25-26.50. Common and medium $24-1,036 pound straight grassers, $20-25.50.

Heifers met a very uneven trade but showed little net change. A small number of steady, mostly good, but including a few choice heifers, $25-25.25. Old-head lots of common and medium, $19-22, and cutter grade heifers and stock, $17-19.

Good cows, which were relatively scarce, met first action in this division and a mostly steady basis. Other grades cleared slowly at unevenly steady to, in spots, 25-50c. Good choice grade 1 cows, $21-22; common and medium, $16-17.50; canners and cutters, $13-15.50; shelly canners, $12-13.

Although trading was rather slow in the bull department, prices showed little net change compared with late last week. Good sausage bulls, $29-30; choice down, old good beef bulls, $23; common and medium sausage, $17-19.50.

Half of the stock cattle supply was still in first hands at 1:00 P. M., but the scattered lots that sold were about steady with last week's finish. Medium and good $25-50; good choice $21-22; common and medium, $17-19.50; few inferior stock steers.

CALVES—Salable receipts also smaller than a week ago and a year ago, and trading was very uneven. Prices steady to 1 1/2 higher than last Friday, with most of the advance displayed by high-medium and choice offerings. A few odd choice veal calves, $25-30; mixed medium to choice lots, $25-30. Bulk of the nine-month good and choice calves, $21-22; common and medium, $17-19.50; few inferior stock calves.

HOGS—The lightest local movement of hogs since the latter part of January was offered buyers today, but heavy receipts at major midwestern points offset this normally bullish influence and sales displayed a general 2-5c decline from last Friday. The equivalent of a single deck of most by choice 190-210-pound barrows and gilts topped $22.50 to equal last Friday's top on trucked lots, but most of the good and choice 180-225-pound trucked-in offerings, $22-22.25. Heavier weights in the 225-260-pound class, $21.25-22; 260-300 pounds, $20.25-21.25; 300-400 pounds, $18.75-19.75; over 400 pounds, $17.75 down. Lighter weights in the 120-140-pound bracket, $19-19.50; 140-160 pounds, $20.75-21.25; 160-180 pounds, $21.50-22.

Good and choice under 400-pound sows, $17-17.50, but odd head 200-300 pounds, $18.25 or above. Good 400-450 pounds, $16-16.50. Heavier weights, $15.50 down. Odd sows $3 under price of the same weight sows. Garbage-fed hogs scarce but quoted $15.50-3 under price of same weight grain-fed offerings.

SHEEP—350, Spring lambs met a fairly broad outlet and sold on a mostly 50c higher basis. The top was $1.50. A small lot of predominantly choice spring lambs, $26, but the top and bulk for good and choice, $24.50; a few odd lots of common to low-grade, $18-22. Shorn slaughter ewes held unchanged. Top and bulk good and choice, $9; few cull and common, $5-5.50.

SCORES TRUMAN FOR NOT HAVING PLANS FOR WAR

Washington, June 28 (AP)—Bernard Baruch took the Truman administration to task today for failing to have ready a stand-by total mobilization plan for a possible new war.

The 77-year-old elder statesman said the need for such a plan "never was greater" because "the cold war is as total as actual war."

"Yet," he said, "with the cold war dragging into its fourth year, we still lack any effective plan for the swift possible mobilization of our resources to insure reaching our allies in time."

Baruch's text was prepared for graduating exercises commemorating the 25th anniversary of the Industrial College of the Armed Forces.

"Additional delay," he warned, "is a needless gamble with our national security—a needless invitation to disaster."

Baruch noted that when the last war ended congress created the National Security Resources board to frame a complete wartime mobilization plan.

Have No Report: "When this agency attempted to act it was, as you know, prevented from doing so," he said. "It has still to be heard from."

Baruch told a reporter he meant a mobilization plan drafted by the National Security Resources board when Arthur M. Hill was its chairman. Baruch described it as "a full mobilization plan, including price controls and allocations of materials."

CUTTING VALUE OF POUND WILL WORK TWO WAYS

By DEWITT MACKENZIE
(AP foreign Affairs Analyst)

It's not surprising that Britain's economic crisis should have given rise to discussion on both sides of the Atlantic as to whether devaluation of the pound sterling would ease the situation.

Under England's managed (controlled) currency the pound now is pegged at about $4.03. It also has a fixed value in relation to the currencies of other countries. The point in lowering the value of the pound would be to encourage foreigners to increase their purchases in Britain.

It works like this: Say the value of the pound were reduced from $4.03 to $3.03. Then obviously the American would save a dollar on every one-pound transaction he made, whether it be for a pair of gloves or for food. That would be a drawing card for tourists and likely would increase exports.

However, this would cut two ways for England. While she would be selling more goods, she would have to pay more for necessary imports, say from America, with her devalued pound. Britain is such a heavy importer that her increased expenditure for imports might more than offset her gain in sales.

Sensational Move
Back in 1931, during the great depression, England faced another crisis which forced her in effect to devalue the pound, and she did it by the sensational move of going off the gold standard—long her financial Rock of Gibraltar. That was on September 21, the memorable day on which the whole financial world was shaken.

For many hours after the unexpected announcement the suspense in Britain and abroad was terrific. It was my fortune to be Associated Press chief of bureau in London at the time and I decided to consult the American ambassador, General

Charles G. (Hell and Maria) Dawes, former Vice President and one of the world's financial experts. I found him in conference with the late Thomas Cochran, a partner in the banking firm of J. P. Morgan. The general inquired me "to get in on this" and I did. After a bit Cochran turned to me and said:

"You ought to go down and get an interview with Morgan about the gold standard." (Mr. Morgan then was in London, with headquarters in the Morgan bank.)

Now one of the iron-clad rules of J. P. Morgan (as it had been of his famous father) was never to give interviews to the press. I knew there wasn't a hope on earth for me if I went down "on my own" and tried to see the great man. However, I had a sudden brain wave, and said to Cochran:

Morgan Studies Market
"Me, and how many more like me? You know perfectly well that Mr. Morgan never gives interviews and that neither I nor anybody else could persuade him to do so."

I saw a glint come into Cochran's eye and his jaw began to stick out. He reached for a telephone and got Morgan on the line.

"Jack, I'm sending DeWitt Mackenzie to see you," he said. "I suggest that you talk with him about the effect of England going off the gold standard."

Well, Morgan received me like a long lost brother. Finally he agreed, and laboriously produced in long hand a message with which I raced to the cables.

Morgan's statement, which described the British government's action as "a hopeful and not a discouraging event" swept into front pages throughout America, and of course raced around the world. This optimistic word from the Sphinx of the House of Morgan was credited with having much to do with steadying international reaction.

Of course, a devaluation of the British pound would not have any such repercussion. Still, it would be a grave move which the government wishes to avoid.

The Pittsburgh Pirates finished in the cellar in 1947 and tied for last in 1948 for their only two trips to the bottom.

CONFESSION BY PRESSURE RULED OUT BY COURT

By JAMES MARLOW

Washington, June 28 (AP) — The Supreme Court has told American cops to do a real detective job instead of trying to pressure a suspect into making a confession against himself.

The pressure doesn't necessarily mean beating a prisoner. It may mean talking to him so long—how long wasn't made clear by the court—that he finally caves in and confesses.

But how long then do cops have a right to question a prisoner without depriving him of his constitutional rights, which the court wants protected?

One minute? One hour? One day? Two days? Five days? The court did not say precisely.

So police undoubtedly will still use their own judgement about holding a man indefinitely, questioning him in relays to get a confession, and then using it to get him convicted and sentenced to jail or death.

Three Cases Reversed
When that happens, though, and the convicted man appeals to the Supreme Court, there's a good chance the court will rule in his favor and throw out his confession and the conviction which followed it.

Future decisions of the court can't be predicted, of course, but that's how the court acted yesterday in the case of three negroes, all found guilty of murder; one in Pennsylvania, one in Indiana, and one in South Carolina.

In each case the men were grabbed as suspects by police, questioned by them in relays for days. None was beaten. All three confessed. All three were convicted.

Until he had confessed, none of the men was allowed to see friends or a lawyer, and none was told he had a constitutional right not to say anything which might later be used against him.

In all three cases the Supreme Court upset the conviction and ruled the men had been deprived of their constitutional right of "due process" of the law.

Which means it was contrary to

Former Chaplain Of Legion Expires

Philadelphia, June 28 (AP) — The Rev. Joseph L. N. Wolf, former national chaplain of the American Legion, is dead at 67.

Father Wolf, who was pastor of St. Gregory's church here, died yesterday at St. Joseph's manor in suburban Meadowbrook.

He served as a chaplain in World War I, seeing action in many of the major engagements in France. He the constitution to hold them so long for questioning before letting them see a lawyer—who would have told them not to confess—or before charging them.

Said the court: "There is a torture of the mind as well as of the body. The will is as much affected by fear as by force. . . . A confession (which) is the product of sustained pressure by the police . . . does not issue from a free choice."

In a separate, agreeing opinion, Justice Douglas said "this is another illustration of the use by the police of the custody of an accused to wring a confession from him. The confession so obtained from literate and illiterate alike should stand condemned."

But Justice Jackson, referring to the various safeguards citizens have under the constitution, said:

"I doubt very much if they require us to hold that the state may not take into custody and question one suspected reasonably of an unwitnessed murder."

"If it does, the people of this country must discipline themselves to seeing their police stand by helplessly while those suspected of murder prowled about unmolested. Is it a necessary price to pay for the fairness which we know as 'due process' of law?"
